

COUNTY AGENT TELLS HOW TO CARE FOR CREAM DURING SUMMER.

From now until fall we will have a surplus of butter accumulating at nearly all creameries in Alabama. This is not due to an overproduction of butter but to a lowering of the quality of the butter produced, due to the quality of the cream received. It is necessary for the cream shippers to assist the butter makers during this season if a good price is to be obtained for the butter, and the butter keep moving into the markets.

The first essential for high-grade cream is the use of properly cleaned dairy utensils. The buckets, cans, and separator parts should be rinsed in warm water after being used, then washed thoroughly in warm water with soap or washing powder, and then rinsed again with boiling water and placed out in the sun until ready to use. The warm cream from the separator should be cooled immediately after cooling mixed with the older cream, stirring the whole thoroughly. The cream can be kept in a spring, if one is available, or in a tub of cold water. The water in this tub should be changed several times daily. It is advisable to use small cans during the summer months so that they can be filled and shipped at least twice each week.

By getting clean separators and the butter makers as to the kind of cream to use, gradually increased the quality of our butter. It is to the interests of both to do this, and it can be done with much less work than is required of the whole milk producers.

An appropriate pre-nuptial musical program was rendered with Mrs. R. E. Williams as pianist. "To A Wild Rose" by McDowell, and "Flower Song" were played on the Saxophone by M. F. Newsom. A duet, "Sweetest Story Ever Told" by Stultz, was sung by Misses Mabel and Beatrice Brunson, of Elba. Solo, "At Dying" by Calman, by Miss Beatrice Brunson.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march. Truener and Rose, by Shuman, were played during the ceremony. First came the bride, escorted by her father, Mr. McDade, wearing a lovely frock of crepe de chine georgette. Then came the bridesmaids, Leon Living, of Montgomery, Hugh Reed Williams, Oliver McDade, and they were followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Lois McDade, Miss Minnie Dwell, and Miss Minnie B. Rhoades, who were beautiful frocks of taffeta and georgette with hats to match. The bridesmaids were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Lois McDade. She wore a lovely frock of flesh colored taffeta and large hat of some delicate hue. Then came the flower girl, Mrs. Walter Carr, of Montgomery, the bride's sister. She wore a beautiful gown of pale green georgette and white hat. Immediately preceding the bride was Little Rebecca Newsom, delightfully covered in tulle and lace, scattering rose petals from her rose filled basket. The lovely young bride entered with her brother, Walter Carr, who gave her in marriage. Her radiant beauty was emphasized by a soft white georgette gown. The bridal ensemble was completed by a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. # CHIEF JUSTICE ANDERSON DENIES FINAL APPEAL FOR BATCHELOR.

Tuesday's Montgomery Journal: Denying the motion of Clyde Reese Batchelor, sentenced to be electrocuted at Kilby penitentiary on July 15 for the murder of his father-in-law, Judge Lamar C. Smith, of Wetumpka, the supreme court of Alabama today wrote this to the famous murder case.

Chief Justice John C. Anderson, today announced that he would file a petition for a writ of error with one of the judges of the United States supreme court this week. The court is not in session at Washington now, but Mr. Anderson was endeavoring to locate Justice Edward Sanford, of Knoxville, one of the associate members of the court.

If Judge Sanford is at home the petition seeking a suspension of sentence, will be filed before him, Mr. Anderson said. Such action is said to be very unusual and it is the last and only hope Batchelor has of obtaining a suspension of the sentence, unless Governor Graves can be persuaded to grant a stay of execution.

Counsel for Batchelor have made every attempt to delay until trial. The case has attracted wide attention.

Batchelor is confined in the death cell at Kilby. He is sentenced to be electrocuted between midnight and daybreak of July 15, only 10 days off.

PRIZES OFFERED FOR BEST VOICES

National Radio Audition Open to Young Singers in This Country.

America's future generation of vocal stars will be disclosed to the world this fall as the winners of the National Radio Audition, to be held in Washington, D. C., in November. Every young man or woman with the gift of song, whether from country, town or city, will have an equal chance.

A nationwide quest for the best young singers and the opening of the door of opportunity to them has been undertaken by the Alvarado Kent Foundation, an institution established for scientific and educational purposes by A. Alvarado Kent, the Philadelphia radio manufacturer and sponsor of the Sunday night grand opera hour, broadcast over a network of nineteen stations.

The Foundation has announced plans for a "National Radio Audition," to be held in Washington, D. C., in November. It is a contest for a musical education in certain fields, and it is the last and only hope Batchelor has of obtaining a suspension of the sentence, unless Governor Graves can be persuaded to grant a stay of execution.

STATE TO MAKE AUTO TAGS WITH CONVICT LABOR

Alabama's new plan for the manufacture of motor vehicle license tags at Kilby Prison will be ready for operation about July 15th, according to Charles A. Moffett, Chairman of the State Board of Administration. The State's supply of license tags for motor vehicles for 1928, totaling 325,000 tags will be manufactured at this new State enterprise at a substantial saving below cost of purchasing from outside manufacturers as in the past. The State Board of Administration decided to install the tag plant after study of what other States are doing but shown that in addition to helping solve the problem of employment of convicts the plant will save money for the state. In addition to the tag plant, road signs will be manufactured for the State's highway system. The 1928 tags will have black letters and figures on a yellow background. A carload of sheet steel has been ordered from Birmingham for use in manufacture of tags.

The plant will employ some thirty convicts, and will effect an annual saving to the State of $12,000 to $16,000, according to estimates of officials.

ALABAMA HAS 6 POISON SNAKES

AUBURN, Ala., July 2.—In Alabama only six species of poisonous snakes are found. Five of them can be distinguished from non-poisonous snakes by their broad square jaws and overlapping head shield which forms a pit between the eye and the snout.

Trof. J. M. Robinson, zoologist and entomologist of the College of Agriculture at Auburn, says that the only Alabama poisonous snake that cannot be identified this way is the coral snake, which is beautiful with red and black bands separated by yellow rings. It is very poisonous but is so small that it can bite only small objects—including fingers and toes of people. It is found in several counties.

The other five poisonous Alabama snakes are the copperhead, cottonmouth moccasin, ground rattlesnake, diamond-back rattler, and the common rattlesnake.

Although these snakes are more numerous in some counties than in others, but one or more of them appear in every county. The cottonmouth moccasin is more numerous than any other snake in the east counties. It is olive brown and crossed by 29 to 50 obscure dark bands. It has a purplish black head and yellow belly with black blotches.

A person bitten by any of these snakes should receive first aid at once. A band of cloth should be tied between the wound and the heart immediately after the snake bite. The wound should be opened immediately with any sharp instrument and the poison sucked out. Persons having decayed teeth or ulcers in the mouth should not do the sucking. Wash the wound with a strong solution of potassium permanganate and give a hypodermic injection of the same solution around the wound. If potassium permanganate is not available, tobacco and kerosene should be applied. Get patient to physician immediately after applying first aid.

Some cows will never be profitable with the best of feeding and care and the farmer who keeps this type is keeping her at a loss. Only by observation, study, and testing can a farmer know his profitable cows.

Beef cattle have sold recently for the highest prices since 1919, the general price level over a year ago ranging from 12 to 27 per cent. The beef cattle outlook for the next few years is favorable.

Night grazing during hot weather is best for dairy cows because it keeps them out of the heat, allows them to graze when there are no flies to bother.
